

Suggestions for travelling to Alterra

Some tips for traveling to Alterra in Wageningen, NL:

Fly to Amsterdam Schiphol airport; there are good train connections from this airport to the Ede-Wageningen train station. Duration of this trip is approximately 1 hour (please see <http://www.ns.nl/reisplanner-v2/index.shtml> for timetables). Buy a train ticket at the airport. From Ede-Wageningen station you can take a bus or taxi to the Wageningen central bus station (this will take about 15-20 minutes). Dutch taxi's are expensive. If you plan to use the bus during your stay it is best to buy a "strippenkaart". You can get it at the airport or at the train station.

Visitors usually stay in the hotel called "Hof van Wageningen" (used to be the WICC hotel), (see <http://www.hofvanwageningen.nl>), which is only a short walk (10 minutes) from the Wageningen central bus station. Please make your own reservation.

The bus from Ede-Wageningen train station stops at Alterra, as do busses departing from the central bus station.

More travel details can be found at:

<http://www.alterra.wur.nl/UK/contact/Route+description+Gaia+Lumen/>