

3. Tsunami wave modelling of Japan

This tutorial shows how Delft Dashboard can be used to set up in a few minutes a tsunami model for Japan. Bathymetry data are automatically downloaded from on-line sources. The initial tsunami wave is computed according to the Okada model (1985), given the earthquake parameters.